

Join the hundreds of businesses including remodelers, contractors, landscapers, architects, masons, trades, lending institutions, building material suppliers....

Find out why more than 350 local businesses are members of the RHBA.

- Education Programs – more than a dozen local programs each year to help you grow your business.
- Access to NAHB education including weekly webinars as well as nationally recognized professional designation programs and NYSBA education programs through the Research and Education Foundation.
- State Representation in Albany – your industry leaders in the state protecting our businesses from undue regulations and legislation.
- National Representation in Washington, D.C. – Your national representatives and one of the largest lobbying groups in the country protecting your rights and ensuring that our industry remains strong.
- You become a member of all three affiliated organizations. You have the advantage of services and benefits from local, state and national.
- Use the Rochester Home Builders' Association logo, the New York State Builders Association logo and the National Association of Home Builders' Association logo to promote yourself as the industry professional
- We offer the lowest prices available for community rated health insurance programs.
- Free membership to RARES, the Rochester Area Recreation and Entertainment Services. Hundreds of discounts including all major amusement parks and theaters to car washes, retail stores, and more.
- Remodelers and builders get free and exclusive registration to HBA Rebates. A program to reward you for using products you probably use now! Receive quarterly checks for doing what you already do!
- Free e-newsletters from all three branches of the federation. Receive news and industry information from local, state and national to be sure you are up on the latest developments.
- Brag about your professional membership! NAHB membership certificate and RHBA door and window decals for your vehicle and your business.
- General Membership meetings bi-annually to bring you up to date on the industry and your association from the local perspective.
- Annual Economic Forecast for a region-wide perspective on the economy.
- Access to a Safety Program and safety training/education that meets OSHA requirements
- Free listing on the RHBA website (the most visited area of our site is the consumer buyer's guide!)
- Free listing in our full size, full color Home Handbook and Buyers Guide – the trusted consumer source for industry professionals. More than 15,000 copies distributed!
- Discounts for exhibiting at the only Home & Garden Show in Rochester! The Home & Garden Show – the largest of its kind in the area sells out each and every spring!
- Discounts on exhibits at Homearama, and the Fall Home & Design Show.
- Social and networking opportunities at the association's major events including the annual Golf Tournament, Sporting Clays Tournament, Clam Bake and more!
- Legal assistance from NAHB through the Legal Research Program
- Discounts locally and nationally include Paychex, HP, FedEx, $500 GM discount, FTD, Omaha Steaks, hotels, car rentals, and dozens more!

Our federation is more than 180,000 members strong. We ARE the voice of the industry.

Don't be fooled by low cost alternatives. Invest in your business. Invest in your future.

Join the professionals at the RHBA.