

2016 Economic Breakfast

Thursday

JANUARY 28, 2016

Join us for an economic overview of our region with Gary Keith and a presentation by guest speaker Vinnie Esposito.

Presented in partnership with:

Economic Outlook Presentation

Gary Keith
Vice President & Regional
Economist, M&T Bank

In addition to his role at M&T Bank, Mr. Keith also provides frequent updates to business and trade groups and the Federal Reserve Bank of NY. He is a member of the Nat'l Association of Business Economics, and also writes a monthly column on regional economic trends for the Rochester Business Journal. He will provide an up close look at our region for 2016.

Guest Speaker

Vinnie Esposito - Regional Director
Empire State Development
Finger Lakes Regional Office

As the Regional Director of the Empire State Development (ESD) Finger Lakes Regional Office, Vinnie oversees New York State's economic development efforts in the 9-county Greater Rochester/ Finger Lakes region. This includes the dual-role of serving as Executive Director of the Finger Lakes Regional Economic Development Council (FLREDC), which is an advisory board that provides strategic direction and funding recommendations for the region. A lifelong resident of Monroe County, Vinnie grew up in the Village of Fairport, studied computer science at SUNY Geneseo, and worked six years as a software designer and project manager for a small database company before entering government where he previously worked as an aide in the New York State Assembly and served as an elected Monroe County Legislator for Irondequoit, where he lives with his wife and daughters.
